

E D & F Man Holdings Ltd.

"We are very excited about our strategic investment in REG due to its leadership in the industry, its strong production and marketing capabilities, and impressive management. We look forward to working together to grow the company and ensure its leadership position. This investment fits perfectly with our strategy of providing services to and making minority investments in this growing industry."

Bunge North America

"Facilitating further production and transportation efficiencies, REG intends to co-locate biodiesel production facilities with Bunge North America oilseed processing facilities. Bunge's involvement in REG provides us an opportunity to create a strategic alliance with a market leader in the fast growing biofuels industry. It also provides us with a good balance so that we can effectively serve the food, feed and fuel markets."

Natural Gas Partners and NGP Energy Technology Partners

"Success in reducing dependence on foreign oil, lowering energy prices and reducing carbon emissions will be led by innovative energy companies with experienced management teams, proven performance and technology, and innovative business strategies. REG is clearly one of those companies and NGP Energy Technology Partners is pleased to be REG's investment partner and to lead this round of financing."

Philip Deutch

Managing Partner of NGP Energy Technology Partners

"Natural Gas Partners has invested over $2 billion in 101 energy companies since 1988. Our investment in REG demonstrates our belief that the energy needs of the United States will be satisfied by a variety of sources and technologies in the years to come. We see the same investment potential and management strength in companies such as REG as we have seen in conventional oil and gas companies."
